TO FIGHT THE BILL.

FEDERATION OF LABOR AGAINST THE REDUCTION OF FEES.

OPPOSED TO CONVICT LABOR.

WILL ASK THE LEGISLATURE TO PASS A NUMBER OF LAWS.

City Officials Go to Topeka to Urge the Passage of a Number of Bills-Supreme Camp of the Royal Neighbors of America -Other News.

Vice President L. A. Hart, of the state Pederation of Labor, returned yesterday from Topeka, where he attended the sixth annual convention of that organization. He said that the attendance was much larger than last year and that the reports showed that the order was in an excellent condition. Resolutions were adopted instructing the legislative committee to fight the bill to be introduced at the coming session of the legislature to reduce the fees of the state printer and also the legal rates for advertisements in newspapers. This resolution was also adopted:

"Whereas, It is obvious that the political issues in state and national elections are toe absorbing to permit that zerious consideration of constitutional amendments which the importance of changes in our organic laws demands; therefore be it.

ganie laws demands; therefore be it game laws demands; therefore be it "Resolved. That we urge the legislature this winter to submit a proposition to so amend the constitution as to provide that constitutional amendments may be voted constitutional amendments may be voted upon in any year at special or any other

The order also attacked the convict labor The order also attacked the convict labor system now in vogue at the penitentiary. The legislature will be asked to pass a law to prohibit the employment of children under the age of 14 years in factories and shops; to compel barber shops to close on Sunday; providing for the appointment of a state boiler inspector; providing that all goods made in the penitentiary shall be stamped "Prison Made Goods;" also a law enlarging the scope of work of the state labor commissioner so that he will meet the requirements of organized labor.

HAD A NARROW ESCAPE.

Officer Fired at a Man Who Took Him for

Frank Ball, of St. Joseph, had a nar-row escape at an early hour yesterday morning. He came to the city Tuesday evening and inquired of Policeman Fink for a hotel. The officer directed him to the Fifth Avenue. Early yesterday mornthe Fifth Avenue. Early yesterday morning while making the rounds the policeman saw a man walk out of the hotel and he ordered him to halt, thinking that he was a burglar. The man started to run and Fink fired at him. The bullet struck the man on the leg, but a heavy felt boot broke the force of the ball and it did not enter the leg. The man stopped and when the policeman went up to him he recognized him as fail, whom he had taken there the night before. Ball said he thought that Policeman Fink was a footpad. He was taken to the police station but was released yesterday.

WANT LEGISLATION.

Mayor and Other City Officials Have Pre-

Mayor Barnes and Councilmen Trower and Hammond went to Topeka yesterday morning, where they will attend the meeting of mayors and councils of the first class cities of the state to-day. This morning the other councilmen and the city attorney will go to Topeka. Each official of this city has suggestions which he wants formulated into bills to be presented and passed by the coming legislature. The bills pertain to the government of cities of the first class. Washington, Jan. 2-Proposals were to-day opened in the office of the super-vising architect of the treasury for the labor and material required for the erec-tion and completion of the United States government building for the coton state and international exposition at Atlanta. Ga. The government building is to be situated at the north end of the main buildings, lifty feet above and overlooking the central plaza, around which they are to be arranged.

overlooking the central plaza, around which they are to be arranged.

The building generally is to be 181 feet by 201 feet in size, with central pavilions on four sides, each sixty-one feet wide and projecting ten feet from the general line of the building, making the extreme dimensions 201 by 281 feet. The building is to be constructed of wood framing, sheathed outside and covered with clapboards and shingles.

The entire woodwork of the interior is to be dressed. The roof is to be supported with long yellow pine posts and the construction is made as light as possible. The elerestory roof is supported by a combination of wood and iron trusses and is to be so arranged as to afford an uninterrupted view from end to end of the building. The exterior is designed with a Romanesque feeling, insofar as the style can be applied to a frame building of this description. The central pavillon on all four sides are to be carried up two stories, or forty-two feet to the cornice line and sixty-three feet to the apex of the roof, and are extended across the building from side to side, forming the clerestory portion, having sides filled with windows.

At the center of the building a tower sixty-one feet square is to be carried up to a height of seventy-six feet to the cornice, with large windows on all sides and ornamental turrets at the corners. Surmounting the tower roof is to be an open lantern twenty feet in disameter.
